FAMILY CHAT

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3, 5 PM

Families share life together, and they do it most regularly around the table. At Union Center, we seek to be family by regularly gathering around the table to encourage one another on the journey of faith. We call these gatherings Family Chats. We invite you to come and be family with us by joining us at our next Family Chat.

Contact: Laura, lkasson@unioncenter.org

SERVICE & OUTREACH

WORSHIP & TECHNICAL ARTS

Do you have a desire to help people engage with God? Perhaps the Worship & Technical Arts Team is a people with whom you can fulfill this desire. We are looking for people to point others to God through the use of instruments and all technical skills. If you have gifting in one or more of these areas and have a passion to serve the Kingdom by leading others in one of these ways we want to hear from you. We are especially in need of bass and electric guitar and drummers.

Contact: Margaret, msmith@unioncenter.org

MISSIONS

ON MISSION: PRAYER POINTS

FROM OUR MISSIONARIES IN AFRICA.

Craig and Andrea Shields and family

- Many missionaries are leaving the field, but few are arriving, which can dishearten those working hard to stay. (Matt. 9:38)
- For our neighborhood, for people of peace who are genuine truth-seekers and for the tiny group from our church that was just started.
- For ITES, the small Bible school here. For the director and other leadership, to clearly discern the will of God and the best way to do theological education here in Senegal.
- Our home as appliances continue to break, which wears us down. For a home internet line.
- For family relationships. Healthy rhythms of work and rest.
- For the kids' school and staffing needs. This school plays a critical role to missionary work in Senegal and other West African nations.
