Dear church family, here are the songs that God has laid on the hearts of the worship team for this week. We're providing them in several formats in the hopes that your family will have access to at least one of them. May I suggest that you also have someone in your family read Psalm 139:1-12 as you begin to worship together and be reminded that God is with you wherever you are and in whatever circumstances you find yourselves. Grace and peace to you - Margaret Smith
