Dear Church Family,

Here are the songs that members of the team selected for worship this week. Scot Cook and his daughter, Emily, and Chris & Caly McAllister recorded these songs for you from their homes. I'm also including a pdf of the song lyrics so you can sing along with their recordings. Hope you and your family will enjoy gathering in your home and worshipping along with them! :)

(Note: If for some reason we run into any technical difficulties with the recordings, we are also providing you with links to the same worship songs on the same platforms as in previous weeks.) Also, the Spotify and Apple Music Playlists are a great way to keep this music with you throughout your week. Wherever you find yourself (physically or emotionally) this week, keep lifting your heart to our Savior. - Margaret
