Dear Church Family,

It's been a hard week with much to grieve and much to pray over.

How does God call us to respond? Jesus taught us to pray: "Your Kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

It's a corporate prayer. We address God as "our" Father, we ask Him to give "us" our daily bread, to forgive "us", to lead "us" not into temptation. The implication is that we function as a community - the very body of Christ.

What does that look like, really? How do we live that out? What does true community, made possible through the work of Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit, require of us? What does it require of me?

I invite you to join me in holding these questions before God and intentionally opening yourself to the work of the Spirit as we worship today. - Margaret
